

September 2016

For immediate release

aha Hotels & Lodges' award winning!

aha Hotels & Lodges' celebrated winning the highly coveted Business Traveller Africa award as the Top South African hotel group for 2016!

For the fifth year Business Traveller Africa magazine recognised excellence at South Africa's premier business travel awards ceremony held earlier this month.

Overseen by an independent research house, categories in the awards cover a variety of industries, from airlines and hotels to car rental, forex, cards and more, making it a massive achievement for the select few awarded.

Out of 23 categories aha Hotels & Lodges ruled supreme in theirs. The criteria – The best South African group with the most consistent offering, including the quality of their properties, consistency in service, accommodation, facilities (both meeting and conference), variety of locations, Wi-Fi offering, food and beverage, loyalty programme, additional services and all round value for money.

“Being acknowledged as the Top South African hotel group by such a highly respected authority in the hospitality industry is testament to our collective commitment to the people that make us great, our most-valued guests,” aha Hotels & Lodges CEO Neil Bald points out in appreciation. “We’re extremely proud of every single person, within the aha group, that actively contributed to us winning this highly sought-after award.”

aha hotels and lodges manages a collection of hotels and lodges throughout Southern Africa, including the Western Cape, North West Province, KwaZulu-Natal, Mpumalanga, Limpopo, Botswana, Zimbabwe and Zambia.

To book or to get more information, visit our website: <http://aha.co.za>